The End Result Is My Strength in You

Prophecy250223b – February 23, 2025

The Lord says, the end result is My strength in you. Believe the Word. Believe the Word, says the Spirit of Grace. See no other image but the one that My Word portrays to you. I call you My Body, I call you My bride, standing in My place of redemption; that your bodies are manifest in the healing power of that which I provided, says the Spirit of Grace. I see and have provided an end result for your marriages, for your finances, for your emotions, for all things that you'd have need of. See the end result.

Cast down imaginations and every high thing that would exalt itself and stand in the image, the final image, and it'll see you through, says the Spirit of Grace. You'll live long lives and profit the Kingdom of God. And you'll come forth with marriages that'll last decades and go all the way to the end.

For I've come to restore you and magnify Myself and My bride. Revival is now. Revival is now, says the Spirit of Grace.
