Step Inside the Room of Expectation

Prophecy250316 – March 16, 2025

Turn loose of human expectation and fall back into a place where the impossible becomes possible, says the Spirit of Grace. Let your expectation be always knowing that prayers, intercession and giving of thanks, and all confession before Me is not one time, but it's a life that's living. And I'm using these things. I am using these things to bring forth the expectation of your heart, says the Spirit of Grace.

So, as you worship Me, no matter where you're at physically, no matter what is going on emotionally, step inside that room of expectation always; that the thing that you've believed for is not only in the process of change, but in the expectation of completion, says the Spirit of Grace.

Do not wait for what you would term a miracle service or some kind of extraordinary events and services to take place. The un-ordinary and the things that are extraordinary are scheduled to happen in your life, in your services, in your homes as a result of the very seedbed, the very foundation by which all these things are being prayed into existence, says the Spirit of Grace.

So, with every moment, with every passing moment, stay in the spirit, says the Spirit of Grace. Stay in the spirit in the service, stay in the spirit as you walk and live and move and have your being in Christ. And you'll find these things are occurring and will come online at what the flesh would call unexpected times, says the Spirit of Grace. Stand and wait in the place of expectation, says the Spirit of Grace.
