

Prophecy – The Family Prayer Center

The Sacrifice of Praise

Prophecy250511 – May 11, 2025

I have no greater joy than My children lift up the sacrifice of praise in the midst of tribulation, in the midst of affliction and persecution. I have no greater joy, nor do My angels when they see Me rejoice over you. Because when you are fought sorely against and your faith is questioned, and he comes to accuse you and accuse Me, when you lift up holy hands and offer the sacrifice of praise, I say unto you that I have no greater joy that My children bring Me. And know this, that the joy, My joy, is your strength, says the Spirit of Grace.

Consider all those who walk by faith. Consider the latter end of Job, that the latter was greater than the former. What has been shall not always be, for I am changing things in the spirit with your confessions. Know that the rudder of your mouth, your tongue, is changing the world that you live in. First the spiritual, then the natural. First the spiritual, then the natural. First the spiritual, then the natural, says the Spirit of Grace. For as I turned Job's world and I turned his affliction and those things that came against him, so shall I turn yours, says the Spirit of Grace.

I have no greater joy than My children worship Me and offer the sacrifice of praise.