I Am in Your Hopes & Dreams

Prophecy250514b – May 14, 2025

I hear the Lord saying that He's restoring hope. Hope. Many have had their hope deferred through multiple attacks. Receive the report of the Lord. Receive. Stand on My Word as if to live or die, and you'll find you'll not be ashamed in the end, says the Lord.

Once again, I'll tell you, I brought Job as an example through the worst that the enemy could throw at a man. And because he chose not to curse Me, I was able through My authority even in an old-testament saint to show you as new-testament believers that I am faithful. I will restore. Your latter end will be greater than the former. Don't give up your dreams. Don't give up your dreams, whatever your dream is that I've personally placed inside of you. For in each one of you I've placed a dream. A dream for some is the healing of your body, a restoration. A dream for many is to see things restored in many areas of your life and to your family. I commune with you in these dreams, says the Spirit of Grace. My hope is infused in you in these dreams. Do not give them up. Do not trade your gold for brass.

I'm by your bedsides; I never leave you through the night. If you'll go to sleep worshipping Me, I'll come to you in your dreams. I'll inspire your spirit with My dreams. You'll see yourself healed, and others. You'll see desperate situations [be resolved]. I want to place, impregnate inside your born-again, Spirit-filled spirit My hopes and My dreams. Many of you have felt almost embarrassed. I say to you, you've not even dreamed big enough.
