Be a Living Sacrifice and See What I Will Do

Prophecy250713 – July 13, 2025

Present your bodies a living sacrifice before Me, says the Spirit of Grace, and see what I'll do. Try Me, prove Me wherewith, see what I'll do. See if I'll not take you to experiences beyond your understanding and places of the penetration of My peace and grace and assurance. Live in the done before the done is done, says the Spirit of Grace. Live in the place of completion, and you'll find joy that'll usher you and take you by the hand. It'll wrap itself around your shoulders and squeeze you tight and usher you down the aisle of your deliverance and of your fulfillment of your miracle, says the Spirit of Grace. For I provided a way that was as sure as the end result, says the Spirit of Grace. The foundation that you're on is unshakeable, says the Spirit of Grace.

Stay in this place. Do not quench the Spirit. Follow after those things that you've been taught by My Spirit, says the Spirit of Grace. Desire these things above all riches and all honor and all desires and all distractions in this life. Cleave to these things as one would cleave and desire the greatest desire of their heart. Those things pull to you as if possession was beyond anything that you desired. And I'll come. I'll fulfill these longings. But I am to him who seeks Me, and I am to her who comes after Me.

You'll not find these things, you'll not stumble on these things, says the Lord. They'll not come and get you, I'm asking you to come and get them. Seek Me, says the Lord, and I'll do exceedingly abundantly above all that you could think or ask, says the Spirit of Grace.
