You're on the Threshold of Miracles

Prophecy250831 – August 31, 2025

You're on the threshold of miracles, says the Spirit of Grace. Multiplication, multiplication, multiplication times multiplication. More and more miracles will begin to transpire among you and in your lives, if you'll take hold of this. I'm at the door, says the Spirit of the Lord, to bring forth that which I have provided and always promised. And even as you're beginning, and some of you can testify of miracles and personal things that are changing, I'm going to bring forth an escalation in My Body and in My Church, not just in these walls, but to the internet church, to the streaming church.
