

Prophecy – The Family Prayer Center

The Spiritual Battle vs. the Natural

Prophecy250928 – September 28, 2025

For most of My Church, and many that are standing here that are well beloved to Me, still believe that their trial has something to do with the natural. If they could fix this, or fix that, or improve that, or go to the next level, things would be fixed, and there is a certain fact in that. But I say unto you this day that behind the scenes of your deepest trials, afflictions, are spiritual things that are taking place in a realm that will never be fixed [in the natural] – it will never be addressed unless I have your spiritual authority. As long as you battle in the flesh, these things will never be settled, but you'll go from one thing to the next to the next.

But I'm offering you grace today, says the Spirit of Grace, that no matter where you're at, or no matter where your walk is at, that if you will yield to My grace and say Yes to My grace and begin to participate in My grace coming to you today, then I will work with that authority behind the scenes in realms where darkness is fighting you and you've yet to recognize that darkness is the culprit and not natural things.

But know this today, that I'm asking of you and I'm imploring you and I'm leaning to you. I want to bring you forward in victory. Together, you and I will walk through the door into places where I bring you into a wide place. Not a narrow place, but a wide place where there is plenty of grace, mountains and mountains and mountains of grace, says the Spirit of Grace, for those who will participate and offer your heart and your body and your mind this day, says the Spirit of Grace.